

2021 1L DIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

1. Name: _____
Email Address: _____
2. Law School: _____
3. Are you legally authorized to work in the United States of America? _____yes _____no
4. Provide a current resume.
5. Provide unofficial transcripts from law school, post-graduate programs (if any), and college.
6. Provide a complete copy of a law school writing sample.
7. If you believe the information would help assess your candidacy, discuss your role in any significant extracurricular activities (including any office held or leadership role) and describe any awards, academic or otherwise, that you received in college or graduate school. (Optional)
8. Write a brief personal essay (250-500 words) explaining your qualifications and interest in practicing law in Delaware, along with any connections you have to the Delaware area. In your essay, discuss your commitment to promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion in the legal profession and why diversity and inclusion are important to you. Law students of a historically underrepresented group in the legal profession, including members of racial and/or ethnic minority groups, LGBTQ+, and those who are differently abled, are encouraged to apply.
9. Each part of the application (application form, resume, unofficial transcripts, legal memorandum, list of activities and honors (optional), and personal essay, must be uploaded to Symplicity at <https://law-dmpd-csm.symplicity.com/students>. Email dmjflfellowship@gmail.com if you have questions.
10. Application materials are due no later than 11:59 PM ET on January 15, 2021.

I certify that the information I have provided on this application and any submitted materials is accurate and complete. I acknowledge that during my participation in the DMJF Fellowship Program, I may be photographed, video recorded, and/or audio recorded. The DMJF reserves the right to use, modify, reproduce, distribute, publish, broadcast, display, and air, in whole or in part, any such photographs or recordings at any time. This includes any comments, quotations, testimonials, responses, or other written or oral materials contained therein, along with my name and a description of my position, for the legitimate business purposes of the DMJF.

Signature of Applicant

Date