

Jack Blumenfeld, Mary Graham Named 2012 Life Science Stars

07.01.2012

Wilmington, DE (July 11, 2012) - Jack Blumenfeld and Mary Graham, partners in Morris Nichols' Intellectual Property Litigation Group, have been named "Life Science Stars" by LMG Life Sciences 2012: The Definitive Guide to the Leading Firms and Attorneys in US Life Sciences.

Selection in Life Science Stars was based on the results of nearly 1000 interviews with and surveys completed by clients within the industry, partners active in the market and other leading lawyers to identify life science attorneys who possess not only exceptional legal skills but also a sophisticated scientific understanding of products born from biotechnology, pharmaceutical, medical device and agritech companies.

LMG Life Sciences is an annual supplement to Managing Intellectual Property magazine - the leading international resource for IP news, analysis, and in-house counsel guides identifying exceptional IP lawyers and firms.
