Andy advises corporations and their counsel on a variety of Delaware corporate law issues.

His areas of focus include issues relating to the fiduciary duties of directors, officers and stockholders, financings, conflict of interest transactions, corporate governance, indemnification and director liability.

He has worked closely with boards of directors, special committees of directors, and managements of public and private corporations in conflict transactions, proxy contests, sale of control and business combination transactions, hostile takeovers and initial public offerings.

Andy serves on the Council of the Corporation Law Section of the Delaware State Bar Association (DSBA), which considers amendments to the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL) and other Delaware statutes that enable the formation of other types of business entities.

Andy frequently writes and speaks on the role and duty of directors and stockholders. He is the coauthor of two Bloomberg BNA Corporate Practice Series Portfolios: Special Committees of Independent Directors and Preferred Stock.

He previously served as chair of Morris Nichols' executive committee from 2018-2020.
