

Elizabeth A. Mullin

Associate

Wilmington, Delaware
emullin@morrisnichols.com
t 302-351-9488

Elizabeth is an associate with the Corporate & Commercial Litigation practice.

Liz has significant trial experience, focusing on corporate and commercial litigation before the Delaware Court of Chancery, including matters involving post-closing disputes, fiduciary duty claims, mergers and acquisitions, and breaches of contract.

She has extensive experience with expedited cases, including shareholder demands, advancement and indemnification disputes, and validation of corporate acts. She also practices in Delaware Superior Court and the US District Court for the District of Delaware.

Liz devotes a portion of her time to pro bono matters.

While in law school, she served on the editorial team of the Villanova Law Review and earned her MBA.

PROFESSIONAL & CIVIC

American Bar Association

Delaware State Bar Association (Litigation Section, Women and the Law Section, Young Lawyers Section)

PRACTICE AREAS

Complex Commercial Litigation

Corporate & Commercial Litigation

Mergers & Acquisitions Litigation

Shareholder Class & Derivative Litigation

EDUCATION

Villanova University School of Law, JD, 2016
Villanova Law Review, staff writer and associate editor, 2014-2016

Villanova University, MBA, 2016

Georgetown University, BA, Classics, cum laude, 2012

ADMISSIONS

Delaware, 2017

US District Court for the District of Delaware, 2017