

20th Annual International Conference on Private Investment Funds

Speaking Engagement

03.10.2019 Through 03.12.2019

London

Event Sponsor: International Bar Association and the American Bar Association

The International Bar Association and the American Bar Association will co-host the annual private investment fund conference from March 10-12, 2019 in London. The interactive event attracts top legal, business and fund professionals from around the world.

Morris Nichols partner Lou Hering will speak in the March 10 session, "Litigation and Regulatory Actions - Current Trends." Panelists will discuss lessons learned from recent litigation and regulatory actions and how they are influencing alternative asset managers' approaches to fundraising and disclosure, conflicts of interests, valuation and developments in the law relating to fiduciary obligations among other matters.

PROFESSIONALS

Louis G. Hering

