

38th Annual Ray Garrett Jr. Corporate and Securities Law Institute

Speaking Engagement

04.26.2018 Through 04.27.2018

Chicago, Illinois

Event Sponsor: Northwestern Pritzker School of Law

On April 26-27, 2018, the Northwestern Pritzker School of Law hosts the 38th Annual Ray Garrett Jr. Corporate & Securities Law Institute in Chicago, IL. The conference presents private practitioners and corporate counsel with an analysis of current issues and developments challenging corporations.

Morris Nichols partner Jeff Wolters serves as a panelist in the session, “Navigating a Corporate Spinoff” on April 26. The program focuses on topics such as business and financial rationales, anticipating and managing activist demands, and board process and fiduciary duty considerations.

Opportunities for CLE credit are available. Visit the Northwestern CLE page for more information.

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate Counseling

