Firm News

10.15.2019

Wilmington, DE (October 15, 2019) - Morris, Nichols, Arsht & Tunnell LLP is pleased to announce that three judicial law clerks have joined the firm as attorneys.

“Judicial clerkships are an invaluable professional experience, offering perspective on the inner working of the court,” said recruiting committee chair R. Jason Russell. “We are delighted to welcome these talented individuals and hope their experience will be beneficial to our clients and support the firm’s continued leadership in Delaware law.”

Adam T. Nyenhuis re-joins the Corporate & Business Litigation group following a clerkship with the Honorable Karen L. Valihura of the Delaware Supreme Court.

Adam earned his J.D. (2017) cum laude from Wake Forest University School of Law; and B.A. (2011) with distinction in political science from the University of Minnesota.

Michelle Streifthau-Livizos joins the Intellectual Property Litigation group. Prior to joining the firm, she served as a law clerk to The Honorable Christopher J. Burke, U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware.

Michelle earned her J.D. (2018) magna cum laude, Order of the Barristers from Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law; and B.S. (2004) in Animal Science with a Pre-Veterinary Concentration, and Chemistry from the University of Delaware.

Jennifer A. Ward re-joins the Intellectual Property Litigation group following a clerkship at the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware, where she served as a law clerk to the Honorable Colm F. Connolly and the Honorable Maryellen Noreika.

Jen earned her J.D. (2017) magna cum laude, Order of Coif from Villanova University School of Law; and B.A. (2014) summa cum laude in history and sociology from Mount St. Mary’s University.
