

Confidentiality and Standstill Agreements: Recent Delaware Law Development

Article

05.22.2013

Patricia O. Vella, Morris Nichols Delaware Corporate Law Counseling Group partner, co-authored “Confidentiality and Standstill Agreements: Recent Delaware Law Developments” featured in the May 22, 2013 edition of The Review of Securities & Commodities Regulation.

The article reviews recent cases from the Delaware courts that have important ramifications on the enforceability and operation of provisions that companies employ in their confidentiality and standstill agreements, with suggested practice points for corporate counsel.
