

Delaware District Judge Gregory M. Sleet to Take Senior Status

Client Alert

04.13.2017

Today, the Delaware District Court announced that as of May 1, 2017, the Honorable Gregory M. Sleet will take senior status. Judge Sleet has served nearly 19 years on the bench, including as Chief Judge from 2007 to 2014, and has handled some of the most complex patent cases in the nation. The Court noted that Judge Sleet intends to render substantial judicial service as a Senior Judge. The Court will have two vacancies as of May 1, 2017 as Judge Robinson took senior status earlier this year. The Court hopes to fill the vacancies in a timely manner.

See the Court announcement here.

PRACTICE AREAS

Intellectual Property Litigation

